All levels pay a $265 Security & Safety Fee and a $225 Community Services Assessment.

Your Community Services Assessment allows Or Ami to directly support local, national, Israeli, and international Jewish projects beyond the Congregation walls. Your Security & Safety Fee helps us address real world security and safety concerns within the Congregation and during off-site programs.

A deposit of 30% of your commitment is due by July 1, 2017. The remainder of your commitment, as well as all school and tuition fees, must be paid either by August 1, 2017 or according to a payment plan worked out with our bookkeeper, Tara Fant. Payment on any balance must be current to receive High Holiday tickets.

Please speak with Tara Fant (818-880-4880 or Tara@orami.org) about other payment plan options or our variance request process.
