

Talmud teaches that a person who teaches Torah to another is especially cherished.

Congregation Or Ami and the Caring Community Foundation are proud to honor

RABBI PAUL KIPNES

with the

L'dor Vador Award:

Passing the Torah onto the Next Generation

Rabbi Paul has dedicated himself to helping each generation transmit Torah values onto the next generation. As spiritual leader of Congregation Or Ami, he's warm, approachable, and inspiring. Every day we witness his devotion to Torah learning, successful youth engagement, warm communal caring, and meaningful social justice work. He lifts us up and inspires us. Under his leadership, Or Ami has received 14 URJ awards for Inclusion, Social Justice, Lifelong Learning, Innovative Worship, Interfaith Outreach, and Best Use of Technology. Rabbi Paul has mentored over 45 rabbinic students and Jewish educators. He is an influential voice in the Rabbinic community, serving as Vice President of the Central Conference of American Rabbis and co-editor of their New Visions of Jewish Community. He also co-authored Jewish Spiritual Parenting, and serves as Dean of Faculty at URJ Camp Newman.

So many of us have experienced uniquely poignant moments when Rabbi Paul has guided us to pass Judaism l'dor vador (from generation to generation). These memories last a lifetime and often become one of the most important moments in our lives.

Please help us honor Rabbi Paul Kipnes for his love of Torah, his innovative Jewish teaching, and community engagement. His influence is profound and his gift of passing down the love of Torah to the next generation is immeasurable.
