

YOM KIPPUR STUDY SESSION

on Zoom with Rabbi Cassi Kail

Am Yisrael, Ahavat Yisrael: Loving Our Fellow Jews (Even When We Disagree)

What does it mean to belong to Am Yisrael, the Jewish People? What binds us as one people, and why are we called to do the mitzvah of ahavat Yisrael (love our fellow Jews), even when we vehemently disagree with them? We will explore Torah, stories, and liturgy in an effort to find answers to these eternal questions.

Rabbi Cassi Kail serves as the Director of Jewish Life for Chapman University, creating opportunities for Jewish students, faculty, and staff to celebrate their Jewish identities, especially now. Working in Chapman's Fish Interfaith Center, she is a skilled educator, passionate about multifaith dialogue.

Or Ami congregation
Your Home for the High Holy Days

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 12

2:00 - 3:00 pm PT | On Zoom

Zoom link will be emailed to all registered two days before Yom Kippur

REGISTRATION AND MORE INFO AT: ORAMI.ORG/RSVP