A New Year

by Michael Hunter Ochs

May this be a year of love and kindness.
May strangers come to be friends.
May truth and compassion always guide us. Amen.

May this be a year of hope and healing
For all of those in need.
May all of our deeds be a blessing. Amen.

Chorus:

A new year, a good year,
A chance to start all over.
A new year, a sweet year,
A chance to bring us closer.

May this be a year of selfless giving.
May this be a year of peace.
And may we forgive and be forgiven. Amen.

Closer to the ones we love,
A world that we can be proud of.
'Long as there are stars above.

There comes a new year. Amen.

Service for Erev Rosh Hashanah

וּבְשׁוֹפָר גָּדוֹל יִתְקַע, וְקוֹל דְּמָמָה דְּקָה יִשְׁמַע.

“Sound the great shofar and listen to the still small voice of conscience.”

In the twilight of the vanishing year we turn to You, as our parents have done before us in their generation. We come into Your presence together with all other holy congregations of Your people, for You purify Israel from year to year. Cleanse us from our sins and renew our being. As the sound of the shofar echoes within us, may it awaken our longing for goodness and for new life in our souls.

Give us courage to be honest with ourselves. Give us the strength to end old quarrels. Make us brave enough to approach You without excuses and humble enough to receive forgiveness. The new moon of Tishri appears in the sky, the sign of our renewal.

With gratitude we bless Your name, O God, for bringing us to such a time.

* * *

With the sinking of the sun, nature’s gift of light and warmth disappears. At the same time, we light our (Shabbat and) Yom Tov candles, offering spiritual enlightenment and emotional warmth to a world grown cold and dark. May these candles shed their light and warmth upon us and the whole family of Israel.

May the New Year be for us a year of Torah and mitzvot; of simcha and shalom; of mishpacha and kehillah, family and community. May it be a Shanah Tovah.

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם,
אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו, וְצִוָּנוּ

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, Ruler of space and time, Who sanctifies us through mitzvot, and commands us to kindle lights for (Shabbat and) our Holy Day.

On this Rosh Hashanah, which is a reminder of creation, we thank You, God, for the world which You have created. You have filled Your world with beauty for our eyes; with music and laughter for our ears; with soft things for us to touch; with fragrances for us to smell; with fine foods to sustain us and to bring us delight.

As we enjoy the many blessings which You have so bountifully granted, may we, too, bring goodness into the lives of others. As we recall Your blessings, may we be moved to thank You always, as we do now, for the fruit of the vine which You have created, and for (Shabbat and) this Yom Tov, which You have sanctified.

There is a world of difference between a holiday and a holy day.
On holidays we run away from duties.

On holy days we face up to them.

On holidays we seek to let ourselves go.

On holy days we try to bring ourselves under control.

On holidays we take a break from making a living.

On holy days we work on making a good life.

On holidays we try to empty our minds.

On holy days we attempt to replenish our spirits.

On holidays we reach out for things we want.

On holy days we reach up for things we need.

Holidays bring a change of scene.

Holy days bring a change of heart.

* * *

God, our soul's companion, our heart's precious Friend, we turn to You. We need to close out the noise, to rise above the noise that interrupts and separates, the noise that isolates. We need to hear You again.

In the silence of our innermost beings, in the fragments of our yearned-for wholeness, we hear whispers of Your presence - echoes of the past when You were with our ancestors. We yearn to hear You now; to find healing in the promise of Your love, to be soothed in Your wholeness, to become whole again.

Please listen to our call. Help us find the words; help us find the strength within. Teach us to shape our mouths, our voices, and our hearts, so that we can direct our spirits and find You in prayer; in words only our hearts can speak, in songs only our souls can sing; lifting our eyes and hearts to You.

If you're lost, you feel afraid, and you don't know what to say, then listen, listen to our God. Is there a question on your mind? Is the answer hard to find? Then listen, listen to our God.

Listen with all your heart and soul, and with all your might; write them and learn them and teach them well. Every morning and night; close your eyes and listen.

Quiet yourself; there's nothing to say, stop all the chatter that gets in the way, and listen, listen to our God.

When the wind and the thunder finally disappear, there's still a voice that you can hear, if you listen, listen to our God.

You can hear it from the top of the highest hill, or from the valley below. It can come from the edge of the universe; it can come from within your soul. Close your eyes and listen.

שְׁמַע יִשְׂרָאֵל: יְהוָה אֱלֹהֵינוּ, יְהוָה אֶחָד!

V'ahavta: You Shall Love

by Debbie Friedman

And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart
With all thy soul and with all of thy might
And all these words which I command you on this day
Shall be in thy heart, shall be in thy heart

And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children
And thou shalt speak of them when thou sittest in thy house,
When thou walkest by the way and when thou risest up,
And when thou liest down, and when thou liest down

And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thy hand
And they shall be for frontlets between thine eyes
And thou shalt write them on the doorposts of thy house,
And upon thy gates, and upon thy gates
That ye may remember and do all of My commandments,
And be holy (holy unto your God)
And be holy (holy unto your God)
And be holy (holy unto your God)

V'a-hav-ta eit Adonai E-lo-he-cha, b'chol l'va-v'cha u-v'chol naf-sh'cha, li-h'yot la-chem lei-lo-him. A-ni Adonai E-lo-hei-chem.

And you shall love the Eternal your God with every desire of your heart;
with everything precious in your life;
with every sad and joyous measure you receive.
Let these words of the Shema which I am commanding you this moment envelop your heart.
Teach them tirelessly to your children; to everyone you touch.
Use them in your speech,
whether you sit inside your house, or walk publicly upon the way.
Say them at night before you sleep and when you arise.
Bind them in a sign upon your arm,
and let them be noticeable between your eyes.
Write them in a mezuzah on the doorpost of your house and on your gates.
Then you will remember and do all of My commandments.
You will set yourselves apart.
I am Adonai, your God,
who brought you out of bondage to be your God.
I am Adonai, your God.

To everything there is a season,
and there is an appointed time for every purpose under heaven.

Now is the time for turning.

It takes an act of will for us to make a turn.

*It means breaking with old habits.
It means admitting that we have been wrong.
And this never is easy.*

It means losing face. It means starting all over again.
And this always is painful.

It means saying: "I am sorry." It means admitting that we have the ability to change, and this is always embarrassing.

These things are terribly hard to do; but unless we turn,
we will be trapped forever in yesterday's ways.

Adonai, help us turn –

From callousness to sensitivity, from hostility to love.

From pettiness to purpose, from envy to contentment.

From carelessness to discipline,
from fear to faith.

*Turn us around, Adonai, and bring us back toward You.
Revive our lives, as at the beginning.*

Turn us toward each other, and turn us to You.

הַשִּׁיבֵנוּ יְיָ, אֱלֹהֵיךָ וְנִשְׁוּבָה, חַדֵּשׁ יָמֵינוּ כְּקֵדֶם.

Ha-shi-vei-nu, Adonai, ei-leh-cha v'na-shu-va. Cha-deish ya-mei-nu k'ke-dem.

Turn us back to You, Adonai, and we will return. Renew our days, as before.

At the shores of the Red Sea, Miriam took up her timbrel and sang her song; a song of praise to God. With confidence and love, she led our ancestors away from their fear and hesitation until all hands were joined; all voices raised in hymn and thanksgiving. May her example lead us too, and may her song soon grow to truly be ours.

The song of men and women joined in understanding and respect. The song of God's miracles: An earth protected and cherished; a gift for our children and the generations to come. The song of a land once ravished by war, now quiet and content; her soldiers home, to leave no more. The song of a world redeemed: the song of peace.

מי כְּמֹכָה בְּאֵלִים יְיָ, מִי כְּמֹכָה נֶאֱדָר בְּקֹדֶשׁ, נוֹרָא תְהִילָת, עֲשֵׂה פֶלֶא.
מְלֻכּוֹתֶיךָ רָאוּ בְנֵיךָ, בּוֹקֵעַ יָם לִפְנֵי מֹשֶׁה, זֶה אֱלֹהֵי עַנּוּ וְאָמְרוּ. יְיָ יִמְלֹךְ
לְעוֹלָם וָעֶד. וְנֹאמַר: כִּי פָדָה יְיָ אֶת יַעֲקֹב, וּגְאָלוֹ מִיַּד חֹזֶק מִמֶּנּוּ. בָּרוּךְ
אַתָּה יְיָ, גֹּאֲלֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל:

No-ra t'hi-lot o-sei feh-leh. Mal-chu-t'cha ra-u va-ne-cha, bo-kei-a yam

V'ne-e-mar: Ki fa-da Adonai et Yaakov, u'g'a-lo mi-yad cha-zak

Who is like You, Eternal One, among the gods that are worshipped? Who is like You, majestic in holiness, awesome in splendor, doing wonders? In their escape from the sea, Your children saw Your sovereign might displayed. "This is my God!" they cried. "The Eternal will reign for ever and ever!" Blessed are You, Adonai, Redeemer of Israel.

Sh'ma Koleinu, listen to our prayers, Adonai.

But if we want you to listen to our prayers, we must be willing to listen to the prayers of others.

To those who pray vainly for attention.

And those who shrink with fear at another's touch.

Those whose outward ugliness may hide a soul of beauty.

And those whose faces we forget from one encounter to the next.

To those who wait in pain only for death.

And those who wait for news which never comes.

O Mentor of Israel, have mercy and compassion for those whose minds are clouded or weak.

And those who bear the burden of broken bodies.

For those whose ambition exceeds their skill.

And those whose early promise has dimmed.

Sh'ma koleinu – listen to their prayers and inspire us to respond to their cries.

Avinu Malkeinu, who makes all things new and yet abides forever the same, we are fashioned as frail creatures of time, yet with a hunger for eternity in our hearts. At the gateway to a New Year we have come full circle ready to begin again.

If our lives have become shallow,

let us deepen them.

If our principles have become shabby,

let us repair them.

If our ideals have become tarnished,

let us restore them.

If our hopes have become faded,

let us revive them.

If our loyalties have grown dim,

let us brighten them.

If our values have become confused,

let us clarify them.

If our purposes have become blurred,

let us sharpen them.

If our horizons have become contracted,

let us widen them.

If our hearts have been chilled by indifference,

let us warm them.

אָבִינוּ מַלְכֵנוּ, שְׁמַע קוֹלָנוּ.

Avinu Malkeinu, hear our plea.

אָבִינוּ מַלְכֵנוּ, חָטֵאנוּ לְפָנֶיךָ.

Avinu Malkeinu, we have sinned before You.

Avinu Malkeinu, have mercy upon us and our children.

Avinu Malkeinu, inspire us to cause all hate and oppression to vanish from the earth.

Avinu Malkeinu, enter us into the Book of Life.

* * *

It is up to us to hallow creation, to respond to life with the fullness of our lives. It is up to us to meet the world, to embrace the whole even as we wrestle with its parts. It is up to us to repair the world, and to bind our lives to truth. Therefore we bend the knee and shake off the stiffness that keeps us from the subtle graces of life and the supple gestures of love. With reverence and thanksgiving we accept our destiny and set for ourselves the task of redemption.

* * *

Let us adore the ever-living God, and render praise unto the One who spread out the heavens and established the earth, Whose glory is revealed in the heavens above, and Whose greatness is manifest throughout the world. You are our God; there is none else.

עָלֵינוּ לְשַׁבַּח לְאֲדוֹן הַכֹּל, לְתֵת גְּדֻלָּה לְיוֹצֵר בְּרֵאשִׁית, שֶׁלֹּא עָשָׂנוּ כְּגוֹיֵי
הָאָרְצוֹת, וְלֹא שָׁמְנוּ בְּמִשְׁפָּחוֹת הָאֲדָמָה, שֶׁלֹּא שָׂם חֻלְקָנוּ בָּהֶם, וְגִרְלָנוּ
בְּכָל הַמוֹנָם. וְאֶנְחָנוּ בּוֹרְעִים וּמִשְׁתַּחֲוִים וּמוֹדִים, לִפְנֵי מֶלֶךְ, מִלְכֵי
הַמַּלְכִּים, הַקָּדוֹשׁ בָּרוּךְ הוּא.

May God, who has decreed that all who live must die, teach us to accept death, yet with all our hearts, desire life. May God, whose plan for us is sometimes hidden, reveal the way to become stronger, having faced the trials of life. And may God, Oseh ha-Shalom, be for us a source of comfort, strength, and peace. And let us say, Amen.

* * *

As we leave Your sanctuary, O God, we acknowledge that wherever we go, we are in Your presence. We pray that our actions will reflect this awareness.

*In moments of temptation, give us courage.
In hours of doubt, renew our faith.
In days of weariness, give us strength.*

As we know Your nearness,
so may we also be touched by Your goodness.

*Clothe our lives with charity.
Deepen our lives with loyalty.
Hallow our lives with integrity.*

Help us to live so that the radiant spirit of these Holy Days will add brightness to all our days and bring light to us and to those whose lives touch our own.

Teach us to give thanks for the opportunities the New Year brings us, for the deeper relationships it offers, and for the grander vision to which we are summoned.

May we be worthy of our ancient heritage and loyal to its teaching, yet aware of the new challenges still before us.

As we greet the New Year with renewed strength and hope, may we set forth confidently as Your partners in the unfolding of life.

Grant us a year of b'racha v'shalom: of blessing and peace. Let the thoughts we think and the deeds we perform, help make this truly a Shanah Tovah!

Each of us enters the sanctuary this Rosh Hashanah morning with a different need.
Some hearts are full of gratitude and joy. They are overflowing with the happiness of love and the joy of life. They are eager to confront the day, to make the world more fair. They are recovering from illness or have escaped misfortune, and we rejoice with them.

Some hearts ache with sorrow. Disappointments weigh heavily upon them, and they have tasted despair. Families have been broken. Loved ones lie on a bed of pain. Death has taken those whom they cherished. May our presence and sympathy bring them comfort.

Some hearts are embittered. They have sought answers in vain; ideals are mocked and betrayed. Life has lost its meaning and value. May the knowledge that we, too, are searching restore their hope and give them courage to believe that not all is emptiness.

*Some spirits hunger. They long for friendship. They crave understanding.
They yearn for warmth.*

O Source of Strength, help us in our common need and striving, to gain strength from one another as we share our joys, lighten each other's burdens, and pray for the welfare of our community.

* * *

You were God
And we were Israel.
God alone, and a lonely people,
Long ago.

You loved us with a great love,
And You taught us
How to respond to You
Through Torah and mitzvot,
Recollections and celebrations.

In the joy of them You have drawn us close to You.
In the joy of them we have discovered You,
The only One.
We are together still.

You respond to every people
In Your chosen way.
With Your love You have chosen to respond to us.
With our love We offer You our praise.

* * *

If you're lost, you feel afraid, and you don't know what to say, then listen, listen to our God. Is there a question on your mind? Is the answer hard to find? Then listen, listen to our God.

Listen with all your heart and soul, and with all your might; write them and learn them and teach them well. Every morning and night, close your eyes and listen.

Quiet yourself; there's nothing to say, stop all the chatter that gets in the way; and listen, listen to our God.

When the wind and the thunder finally disappear, there's still a voice that you can hear, if you listen, listen to our God.

You can hear it from the top of the highest hill, or from the valley below. It can come from the edge of the universe; it can come from within your soul. Close your eyes and listen.

When You Believe

by Stephen Schwartz & Kenneth Edmonds

Many nights we've prayed
With no proof
Anyone could hear
In our hearts a hopeful song
We barely understood
Now we are not afraid
Although we know
There's much to fear
We were moving mountains
Long before we knew
We could

Chorus:

There can be miracles
When you believe
Though hope is frail
It's hard to kill
Who knows what miracles
You can achieve
When you believe,
Somehow you will
You will when you believe.

In this time of fear
When prayer so often
Proved in vain
Hope seemed like
The summer birds
Too swiftly flown away
Now I'm standing here
With heart so full
I can't explain
Seeking faith and
Speaking words
I never thought I'd say

Ashira l'Adonai kee ga-oh ga-ah
Ashira l'Adonai kee ga-oh ga-ah
Mi chamocha ba-elim Adonai
Mi kamocha ne-edar bakodesh
Nachitah b'chas-d'cha
Am zu ga-alta
Nachitah b'chas-d'cha
Am zu ga-alta

One Day / Hashkiveinu

by Matisyahu & Craig Taubman

Sometimes I lay under the moon,
I thank God I'm breathing
Then I pray don't take me soon,
'Cause I am here for reason

Sometimes in my tears I drown,
But I never let it get me down
So when negativity surrounds,
I know someday it'll all turn around because

Chorus:

All my life I've been waiting for,
I've been praying for, for the people to say
That we don't want to fight no more,
There'll be no more wars, and our children will play

One day, one day, one day (2x)

Hashkiveinu Adonai Eloheinu l'shalom
V'ha-amideinu shomreinu l'chaim

May our prayers be pleasing to You because the lips which speak them also speak words of hope to the discouraged, cheer to the distressed, solace to the bereaved, and kindness to all.

May our prayers be pleasing to You because they reflect not only our own needs but also the needs of others, and the needs of our people.

May our prayers be pleasing to You because they remind us of what You expect of us, and because they challenge us to become all that we are capable of being.

The promise of Rosh Hashanah is the promise of life renewed. We are challenged to examine our lives and rediscover our true selves. We are given the opportunity to cast away the spiritual burden of our sins, to rebuild the bonds of love and friendship that have been weakened during the past year and to be the best that we can be. It is a holy day filled with hope and sustained by memories.

The words of U'netaneh Tokef resonate deeply in our souls because they reassure us that through repentance, prayer and righteous deeds of love, our lives can attain their highest potential.

* * *

On Rosh Hashanah, it is written; on Yom Kippur it is sealed:
who shall live and who shall die.

Who shall be pierced by envy, and who shall be torn by resentment;

Who shall be tormented by the fire of ambition, and whose hopes shall be quenched by the waters of failure;

Who shall hunger for approval, and who shall be stuffed with selfishness;

Who shall be content with his lot, and who shall wander in search of satisfaction;

Who shall be poor in her own eyes, and who shall be rich in mitzvot;

Who shall be serene, and who shall be distraught;

Who shall stand out as a Jew, and who shall fade away and assimilate;

Who shall study Torah, and who shall be tight-fisted;

Who shall be interdependent with others, and who shall be independent and alone;

Who shall be truly alive, and who shall merely exist;

But Rosh Hashanah has just begun, and the pages of the Book of Life have yet to be inscribed. Therefore we can still change the decree, for we are a people that does not resign itself to fate.

Through teshuva - repentance, through tefillah - prayer, and through tzedakah - righteous giving, we can annul the decrees. We can re-open the future. We can reclaim our lives. We can change the future by changing ourselves.

We are flesh and blood. Our origin is in the dust, and our end is to be dust. But we have been created in the Divine image.

Implanted within us is the ability to pray, the urge to do right, and the power to repent.

Sh'ma Koleinu

by Beth Schafer

With humility
And graciousness
We stand before you
The days have made us
Weary and unsure
And although we've
Made mistakes
The truth is we adore You
And ask that You be
With us evermore

If you look into our eyes
You'll find a quest
For learning
If you look into our hearts
You'll find true love
If you look into our souls
You'll find a
Constant burning
It's the fire that's been
Kindled from above

Chorus:

Sh'ma Koleinu
Hear our voices
Adonai Eloheinu
Our one and only God
Have compassion
On us, your children
And with compassion
Hear our prayer

And if we stray
Don't push us away
Help us return to
What is right
We know that it's late
But we're willing to wait
For Your answer,
For Your blessing,
For Your light

Genesis 22:1-19

22 Some time afterward, God put Abraham to the test. God said to him, “Abraham,” and he answered, “Here I am.” <sup>2</sup>And God said, “Take your son, your favored one, Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the heights that I will point out to you.” <sup>3</sup>So early next morning, Abraham saddled his donkey and took with him two of his servants and his son Isaac. He split the wood for the burnt offering, and he set out for the place of which God had told him. <sup>4</sup>On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place from afar. <sup>5</sup>Then Abraham said to his servants, “You stay here with the donkey. The boy and I will go up there; we will worship and we will return to you.”

<sup>6</sup>Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and put it on his son Isaac. He himself took the firestone and the knife; and the two walked off together. <sup>7</sup>Then Isaac said to his father Abraham, “Father!” And he answered, “Yes, my son.” And he said, “Here are the firestone and the wood; but where is the sheep for the burnt offering?” <sup>8</sup>And Abraham said, “God will see to the sheep for the burnt offering, my son.” And the two of them walked on together.

<sup>9</sup>They arrived at the place of which God had told him. Abraham built an altar there; he laid out the wood; he bound his son Isaac; he laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. <sup>10</sup>And Abraham put forth his hand and he picked up the knife to slay his son. <sup>11</sup>Then an angel of the ETERNAL called to him from heaven: “Abraham! Abraham!” And he answered, “Here I am.” <sup>12</sup>And the angel said, “Do not raise your hand against the boy, or do anything to him. For now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your favored one, from Me.” <sup>13</sup>When Abraham looked up, his eye fell upon a ram, caught in the thicket by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt offering in place of his son. <sup>14</sup>And Abraham named that site Adonai-yireh, whence comes the present saying, “On the mount of Adonai there is vision.”

<sup>15</sup>The angel of the ETERNAL called to Abraham a second time from heaven, <sup>16</sup>and said, “By Myself I swear, the ETERNAL declares: Because you have done this and have not withheld your son, your favored one, <sup>17</sup>I will bestow My blessing upon you and make your descendants as numerous as the stars of heaven and the sands on the seashore; and your descendants shall seize the gates of their foes. <sup>18</sup>All the nations of the earth shall bless themselves by your descendants, because you have obeyed My command.” <sup>19</sup>Abraham then returned to his servants, and they departed together for Beer-sheba; and Abraham stayed in Beer-sheba.

The sounds of the shofar recall the shofar blasts of the Jubilee Year, when slaves were set free.

May we answer the shofar's call by observing the mitzvah to "proclaim liberty throughout the land, to all its inhabitants," thereby freeing all who are enslaved in our world.

The Shofar reminds us of previous generations who did teshuvah, and returned to God, in humility and contrition.

May our generation answer the Shofar's call by examining our ways, admitting our failures, and striving to live more nobly in the year ahead.

SHOFAROT: The Messianic Call

We believe in tomorrow. We believe that we have the power to make tomorrow different from today. We believe that poverty need not be permanent and that people need not learn war any more.

We believe that there can yet be a time of peace and a time of justice, a time of tranquility for all who live on earth.

We believe that we can have a share in bringing that day closer by the way in which we live in the New Year.

The world may smile at our dreams but no matter, we still believe.

ZICHRONOT: Memories

The shofar calls us to remember the revelation at Mount Sinai, accompanied by “trembling, and thunderous shofar blasts...”

May we answer the shofar's call by studying Torah, and by transmitting our heritage to future generations.

The shofar recalls the ram which was sacrificed on the altar in place of Isaac.

May we answer the shofar's call by sacrificing greed and vanity on the altar of service.

Service for Erev Yom Kippur

סֶלַח נָא לַעֲוֹן הָעָם הַזֶּה כְּגֹדֶל חַסְדֶּךָ.

“Forgive the sin of this people, for great is Your kindness.” (Num. 14:19)

Once more Yom Kippur has come, all pretense gone. With naked heart revealed to the hiding self and to God, we stand in holy time, between the day that was and the one that might be; and we tremble. Toward what did we aim? How did we stumble? What did we take, and what did we give? To what were we blind? If last year's confession came easily to our lips, will this one come from deep within our hearts? On this Yom Kippur, we have come together to pray, to praise, to turn inward, and to probe ourselves.

* * *

In the Jewish tradition we kindle lights on the eve of holy days and festivals to symbolize the coming of a new day with its message of hope and renewal. These Yom Kippur lights are only flickering flames, yet they illuminate our faltering steps. These flames remind us of years long past, of the beauty and happiness that have delighted our hearts. May these flickering candles inspire us to use the year ahead for kindness and compassion, for blessing and goodness, for justice and peace.

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו, וְצִוָּנוּ

a-she- ki-d'sha-nu b'mitz-vo-tav, v'tzi-va-nu

Blessed is our God, Guide of the Universe, who hallows us with mitzvot, and commands us to kindle the lights of (Shabbat and) the Day of Atonement.

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, שֶׁהֵחֵינּוּ, וְקִיַּמָּנוּ, וְהִגִּיעָנוּ לְזֶמֶן הַזֶּה.

Blessed is Adonai our God, Guide of space and time, for giving us life, for sustaining us, and for enabling us to reach this season.

Amen.....

The year gone by has faded with the sunset as we move always forward into life.

This night, which borders past and future, summons us to this sanctuary.

It summons us to account for the gift of life.

On this sacred night we join as one congregation with repentance on our lips and with resolve in our hearts that our repentance be reflected in our deeds.

We seek forgiveness from ourselves, from others, and from God.

We seek atonement; to be at one with ourselves, with others, and with God.

Shine a light for us, O Source of light, that we may see the way into a new and better year.

אֹרֶךְ יָרֵעַ לְצַדִּיק וּלְיִשְׁרֵי לֵב שִׁמְחָה.

Or za-ru-ah la-tza-dik u-l'yish-rei leiv sim-cha.

Light is sown for the righteous and gladness for the upright in heart. (Psalm 97:11)

* * *

There is a light. What makes it shine?
When I do right, it becomes mine.
Straight from the heart, happiness grows.
Where there's a light, life overflows.

There is a seed. What makes it grow?
Where it will lead, there I must go.
Straight from the heart, the truth never fails.
Where there's a light, justice prevails.

* * *

God of all generations, make us honest enough to recognize our transgressions, big enough to admit them, and strong enough to forsake them.

Humble us by showing us what we are; exalt us with a vision of what we may yet grow to be.

Keep us ever mindful of our dependence upon You, and help us to understand Your desires for us.

United with You in a holy partnership, may we dedicate our lives to the repair of Your world.

Help us create homes filled with joy and harmony, and to labor for peace among communities and nations.

On this sacred night, grant us atonement, and help us to find serenity within ourselves.

Kindle within us the fires of faith, and set aglow our courage to live the words we pray.

* * *

In this spirit, eight hundred years ago, Rabbi Meir of Rothenberg transformed his congregation into a legal body on Yom Kippur. So, too, do we come together on this night as a holy community, transforming our sanctuary into a court for the Jewish soul.

בִּישׁוּבָהּ שֶׁל מַעֲלָה וּבִישׁוּבָהּ שֶׁל מַטָּה,
עַל יְדֵעַת הַמָּקוֹם וְעַל יְדֵעַת הַקָּהָל, אָנוּ מַתִּירִין לְהִתְפַּלֵּל עִם הָעֲבָרִיִּים.

By the authority of the heavenly court, and by the authority of the earthly court, with the knowledge of the ever-present God, and with the knowledge of this congregation, we welcome all to pray with our community and declare it proper to pray with others who have wronged either God or other human beings.

All vows, promises, and commitments we made since last Yom Kippur and in the years before – may we be given strength to keep them.

Our marriage vows:

*May they endure through dark days and dull days, through fatigue and anger.
May our love and trust prove strong enough to last.*

Our vows for good health, to exercise, to diet:

*May we take our own lives seriously enough to heed them;
caring for our bodies in the midst of the pressures of our daily lives.*

The promises we make to expand our minds and nourish our spirits:

May we be strong enough to let this year be a year of study and of prayer.

Our commitments to family and to friends, pledges of tzedakah; vows to work for others:

May we be as compassionate and generous as our tradition teaches we should be.

Our God, and God of our ancestors, we mean in all seriousness the vows we make to You, and to ourselves.

But even as we vow, we are conscious of how last time we failed. The guilt of our failures weighs heavily upon us. We have sinned, we have transgressed, we have acted deceitfully.

In the beginning, You made a simple world: day and night, water and earth, plants and animals. But now You create galaxies beyond systems in the unending curve of space. Now we know You create with subtlety the invisible atom with its secret heart of power. You create, with delicacy, the cell; splitting, becoming life. Filled with joy, You make a human being; a whole world, mysterious, delicate, and violent.

Overflowing with joy, You create myriads of people, fling galaxies across space, sowing them with countless kinds of life. Your love - massive, cosmic, joyful - explodes around us, as in the beginning, in a burst of light, a rush of waters, in the cry of birth, and in ourselves.

* * *

If you're lost, you feel afraid, and you don't know what to say, then listen, listen to our God. Is there a question on your mind? Is the answer hard to find? Then listen, listen to our God.

Listen with all your heart and soul, and with all your might; write them and learn them and teach them well. Every morning and night; close your eyes and listen.

Quiet yourself; there's nothing to say, stop all the chatter that gets in the way, and listen, listen to our God.

When the wind and the thunder finally disappear, there's still a voice that you can hear, if you listen, listen to our God.

You can hear it from the top of the highest hill, or from the valley below. It can come from the edge of the universe; it can come from within your soul. Close your eyes and listen.

Loving life and its mysterious Source with all our heart and all our spirit, all our senses and strength,
we take upon ourselves and into ourselves these promises:
To care for the earth and those who live upon it.
To pursue justice and peace.
To love kindness and compassion.
We will teach this to our children throughout the passage of the day as we dwell in our homes, and as we go on our journeys, from the time we rise until we fall asleep.
May our actions be faithful to our words that our children's children may live to know that truth and kindness have embraced,
and that peace and justice have kissed, and are one.

* * *

Yom Kippur punctuates our lives like a semi-colon, forboding a full stop – tomorrow, or years from now.

*Has a year already passed? Are we where we were before?
Have we failed again?*

It seems that, but yesterday, we stood before You. Errors and sins we humbly acknowledged; numbly we admitted our faults.

*Yesterdays are many; tomorrows, now, fewer;
so many opportunities have passed.*

And now we face Your judgment. We can bear it, God, because of Your great mercy. "You know how we are made. You remember we are dust."

But if last year we hoped for transformation, then it's time to judge ourselves.

Your judgment we can bear; it is our own that frightens us. No punishment is greater, Eternal One, than what we give ourselves.

Arm us against self-hatred. Remove our bitterness of spirit. Help us to forgive ourselves for having failed again.

* * *

We believe that the world is beautiful and worth singing about.

We believe that the world is full of kindness and of faith, that the success of evil-doers, of bigots and tyrants is only temporary and that the righteous will strike deep roots growing in stature and in power.

We believe that being Jewish means being godly; that being godly means being just. This is our goal and our destiny.

We believe that the life of the Jew has been a struggle for freedom; that the triumph of freedom is a most wondrous miracle. We remember at all times and at all places God's greatest claim on our loyalty: "I am the Eternal your God Who took you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage." And so we are commanded to remember God, and never to bow down to Pharaoh.

מִי כְמוֹכָה בָּאֵלִים יְיָ, מִי כְמוֹכָה נֶאֱדָר בְּקֹדֶשׁ, נוֹרָא תְהִילָת, עֲשֵׂה פֶלֶא.

אַתָּה יְיָ, גֹּאֲלֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל:

V'ne-e-mar: Ki fa-da Adonai et Yaakov, u'g'a-lo mi-yad cha-zak mi-me-nu. Ba-ruch A-tah Adonai, ga'al Yisraeil.

Who is like You, Eternal One, among the gods that are worshipped? Who is like You, majestic in holiness, awesome in splendor, doing wonders? In their escape from the sea, Your children saw Your sovereign might displayed. "This is my God!" they cried. "The Eternal will reign for ever and ever!" Blessed are You, Adonai, Redeemer of Israel.

* * *

Shelter us in the cool shade of Your wings, for You are the God who protects us and shields us.

God our Guide,
Compassionate and Forgiving are You.

Protect our going forth and our coming home into life and peace
from this moment until the end of time.

Spread over us a sukkah filled with Your peace.

* * *

O Mentor of Israel, on this Yom Kippur eve help us acquire the priceless knowledge of how to make amends when we have wronged others. When our pride will not allow us to seek forgiveness, then let us learn that in Your sight, contrition is a mitzvah far above pride. Help us to learn, also, that merely to be sorry for our errors and shortcomings is not enough. We must discipline ourselves by repeated mitzvot, to repair whatever damage we may have done to others.

May we act to make restitution for the precious things which we robbed from our neighbors, be it belongings, happiness, or sleep. May we be strong enough to face someone and say, by word or by deed, "I repent of the wrong that I have done you."

* * *

Source of all being, we turn to You as did our people in ancient days. They beheld You in the heavens; they felt You in their hearts; they sought You in their lives. Their quest is ours. Help us to see the wonder of being. Give us the courage to search for truth. Teach us the path to a better life. May we, by our lives, our labors and our prayers, bring nearer the world we envision: a world of justice, freedom and peace.

One Day / Hashkiveinu

by Matisyahu & Craig Taubman

Sometimes I lay under the moon,
I thank God I'm breathing
Then I pray don't take me soon,
'Cause I am here for reason

Sometimes in my tears I drown,
But I never let it get me down
So when negativity surrounds,
I know someday it'll all turn around because

Chorus:

All my life I've been waiting for,
I've been praying for, for the people to say
That we don't want to fight no more,
There'll be no more wars, and our children will play

One day, one day, one day (2x)

Hashkiveinu Adonai Eloheinu l'shalom
V'ha-amideinu shomreinu l'chaim

Inspire us, Soul of our Souls, with a sense of the sacred.

Too often we succumb to cynicism; too often we wallow in worthlessness.

Inspire us, Holy One, with the blessings of Your truth.

Too often we speak slander and violence; too often we falter in our faithfulness.

Help us, Compassionate One, to help others. Protect us, Healer, from callousness.

Inspire us, Merciful One, with kindness. Protect us, Eternal, from indifference.

Help us to open our eyes to Your truth. Help us to open our hearts to Your Torah. Help us to open our lives to You.

We confess our moral failures:

For the sin which we have committed by spurning parents and teachers,

Fearful that acceptance of their guidance and authority implies a lessening of our own worth.

For the sin which we have committed by wronging our neighbors,

Regarding them as tools to be used or strangers to be ignored, rather than as fellow-creatures.

For the sin which we have committed by envy,

Minimizing our own blessings while exaggerating the good fortune of others.

For the sin which we have committed by hardening our hearts,

Fearful of showing compassion lest others think of us as weaklings.

For the sin which we have committed by denying and lying,

Because we did not have the fortitude to acknowledge the truth.

For the sin which we have committed by bribery,

Trying to get special favors for ourselves or our children, regardless of the law or of the common good.

For the sin which we have committed by slander and tale-bearing,

Building up our own importance by belittling others and showing off.

L'dor Vador

by Josh Nelson

We are gifts, and we are blessings.

We are history in song.

We are hope, and we are healing.

We are learning to be strong.

We are words and we are stories.

We are pictures of the past.

We are carriers of wisdom,

Not the first and not the last.

Chorus:

L'dor vador nagid godlecha.

L'dor vador, we protect this chain.

From generation to generation,

L'dor vador, these lips will praise Your name.

Looking back on the journey

That we carry in our heart.

From the shadow of the mountain

To the waters that would part.

We are blessed and we are holy

We are children of Your way.

And the words that bring us meaning

We will have the strength to say.

Am I Awake

by Noah Aronson

Am I awake? Am I prepared?
Are you listening to my prayer?
Can you hear my voice?
Can you understand?
Am I awake? Am I prepared?

Ya di li-li-li (2x)

Bar'chu et Adonai ham'vorach
Baruch Adonai ham'vorach l'olam va'ed

Praise Adonai to whom praise is due forever!

Praised be Adonai to whom praise is due, now and forever!

Flood us with Your light, let Your Torah seize our hearts, and unite us to revere Your name. Infuse our deeds with holiness, radiant with passion for life. May Your mercy ever sustain us with the wisdom of Torah. O Holy One, we bless You, for Your blessed gift of love.

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ, הַבּוֹחֵר בְּעַמּוֹ יִשְׂרָאֵל בְּאַהֲבָה.

Ba-ruch A-tah Adonai, ha-bo-cheir b'a-mo Yisraeil b'a-ha-va.

* * *

Listen! Because I know You will hear me as I fear this unknown I must enter, surrendering my self, my authority, if only for a brief while.

Listen! Because I know You will hear as I praise You now.

Listen! Because I know You are there: hearing me, warming me, renewing me, leading me through this time to a place of health and vigor.

* * *

If you're lost, you feel afraid, and you don't know what to say,

Then listen, listen to our God.

Is there a question on your mind? Is the answer hard to find?

Then listen, listen to our God.

Listen with all your heart and soul, and with all your might;

Write them and learn them and teach them well every morning and night.

Close your eyes and listen.

Quiet yourself; there's nothing to say, stop all the chatter that gets in the way;

And listen, listen to our God.

When the wind and the thunder finally disappear,

There's still a voice that you can hear, if you listen, listen to our God.

You can hear it from the top of the highest hill, or from the valley below.

It can come from the edge of the universe; it can come from within your soul.

Close your eyes and listen.

שְׁמַע יִשְׂרָאֵל: יְהוָה אֱלֹהֵינוּ, יְהוָה אֶחָד!

* * *

On this Day of Atonement we will not seek to escape responsibility for our own selves.

We will not fault parents, siblings or childhood traumas for the weaknesses we display. Nor will we blame society, the economy, or our institutions for their failure to make us perfect.

Judaism teaches us that we are free. Not free to do anything we want, for we have obligations to others. Nor free to be anyone we wish, for we are influenced by others.

We are free to choose, a dozen times a day, how we shall react to life's challenges, and in this small way, to mold ourselves to become better than we are.

On this Day of Atonement we need to accept responsibility for our own selves.

We cannot be perfect, continuously happy and successful, always attractive, popular and healthy.

We seek only to be better, to be a little kinder, braver, and more patient.

We seek to do a few more mitzvot, to share a few more simchas, to be at one with ourselves, our values and our dreams, as well as being at one with our people, our traditions and our God.

אֲדֹנָי שְׁפָתַי תִּפְתָּח וּפִי יַגִּיד תְּהִלָּתְךָ:

Teshuvah: Repentance.

To look within ourselves, to change what can be changed, to repair what can be repaired, to reconcile what can be reconciled, to let go.

Tefilah: Prayer.

Developing our awareness of the Source of all life by knowing the blessings of life and sharing those blessings with each other, asking for forgiveness, proclaiming our aspirations for wholeness, singing when it's right to sing, crying when we need to cry, and reflecting regularly.

In these ways we diminish ourselves and harm others:

*Through fraud and falsehood,
Through dishonesty, however good the excuse,
Through the breach of trust,
Through saying much and doing little,
Through envy and through the hatred it breeds.*

In these ways we diminish ourselves and harm others:

*By pretending emotions we do not feel,
By using the sins of others to excuse our own,
By denying our responsibility for our own misfortunes,
By refusing to admit our share in the troubles of others.*

In these ways we diminish ourselves and harm others:

*By condemning in our children the faults we tolerate in ourselves,
By condemning in our parents the faults we tolerate in ourselves,
By remembering the price of things and forgetting their value,
By sacrificing the truth to protect our egos,
By desiring to be served rather than serving others,
By feeling Jewish and doing so little about it.*

In these ways we diminish ourselves and harm others:

*By lying to gain advantage,
By using people as stepping-stones to our own needs,
By manipulating those we claim to love.*

In these ways we diminish ourselves and harm others:

*By treating with arrogance those who are vulnerable,
By seeking out those we can feel superior to,
By diluting our Jewish heritage so that it cannot be passed on,
By erecting borders and finding them satisfying,
By remaining silent in the face of evil.*

וְעַל כָּלֵם, אֱלֹהֵי סְלִיחוֹת, סְלַח לָנוּ, מַחֵל לָנוּ, כַּפֵּר-לָנוּ.

V'al ku-lam E-lo-ha s'li-chot, s'lach la-nu, me-chal la-nu, ka-per la-nu.

For all these sins, O God of compassion, forgive us, pardon us, restore us.

Hear our voice, Eternal One. Have compassion upon us and, with that compassion, accept our prayer. Help us to return to You; then truly shall we return. Renew our days as in the past.

* * *

Avinu Malkeinu, we pray for life. Bless us, once more, with a year of life so that we may be privileged to complete the year we have just begun.

Despite the burdens and the heartbreaks, the pains and perils, we want to live; we ask to be sealed in the Book of Life.

But even as we pray that years may be added to our lives, we ask that true life may be added to our years.

May the New Year be for us a time for enhancing the quality of our lives, enriching their content, deepening their meaning.

Help us to keep our minds alive. May we be open to new ideas, entertain challenging doubts, re-examine long-held opinions, nurture a lively curiosity, and strive to add to our knowledge.

Help us to keep our hearts alive. May we develop greater compassion, be receptive to new friendships, and grow more sensitive to those who surround us.

Help us to keep our souls alive. May we be more responsive to the needs of others, less vulnerable to consuming greed, more attentive to the craving for fellowship, and more devoted to truth.

Help us to keep our spirits alive. May we face the future with confidence, knowing that every age has its unique joys and satisfactions, each period in our lives a glory of its own.

Help us keep our faith alive. May we be sustained by the knowledge that You have planted within us life eternal and have given us the power to live beyond our years.

Whether our years be few or many, help us to link our lives to the life of our people and to our eternal faith.

אָבִינוּ מַלְכֵנוּ, שְׁמַע קוֹלֵנוּ.

Avinu Malkeinu, hear our plea.

אָבִינוּ מַלְכֵנוּ, חָטֵאנוּ לְפָנֶיךָ.

Avinu Malkeinu, we have sinned before You.

Avinu Malkeinu, have mercy upon us and our children.

אָבִינוּ מַלְכֵנוּ, כִּלֵּה דָבָר וְחָרֵב וְרָעָב מֵעַלֵּינוּ.

Avinu Malkeinu, help us to diminish pestilence, war and famine.

אָבִינוּ מַלְכֵנוּ, כִּלֵּה כָּל צָר וּמִשְׁטֵיץ מֵעַלֵּינוּ.

Avinu Malkeinu, inspire us to cause all hate and oppression to vanish from the earth.

אָבִינוּ מַלְכֵנוּ, כְּתִבָּנוּ בְּסֵפֶר חַיִּים טוֹבִים.

Avinu Malkeinu, enter us into the Book of Life.

אָבִינוּ מַלְכֵנוּ, חֲדֹשׁ עָלֵינוּ שָׁנָה טוֹבָה.

Avinu Malkeinu, renew our faith in the future that we may make the coming year truly a Shanah Tovah, a year of goodness.

אָבִינוּ מַלְכֵנוּ, חֲנֻנוּ וְעֲנֻנוּ, כִּי אֵין בָּנוּ מַעֲשִׂים,
עֲשֵׂה עִמָּנוּ צְדָקָה וְחֶסֶד וְהוֹשִׁיעֵנוּ.

Avinu Malkeinu, though we may be unworthy, do not give up on us. Inspire and encourage us, for You are both just and loving.

Sh'ma Koleinu

by Beth Schafer

With humility
And graciousness
We stand before you
The days have made us
Weary and unsure
And although we've
Made mistakes
The truth is we adore You
And ask that You be
With us evermore

If you look into our eyes
You'll find a quest
For learning
If you look into our hearts
You'll find true love
If you look into our souls
You'll find a
Constant burning
It's the fire that's been
Kindled from above

Chorus:

Sh'ma Koleinu
Hear our voices
Adonai Eloheinu
Our one and only God
Have compassion
On us, your children
And with compassion
Hear our prayer

And if we stray
Don't push us away
Help us return to
What is right
We know that it's late
But we're willing to wait
For Your answer,
For Your blessing,
For Your light

Deuteronomy 29:9-14, 30:11-20

<sup>9</sup>You stand this day, all of you, before the ETERNAL your God—your tribal heads, your elders and your officials, all the people of Israel, <sup>10</sup>your children, your spouses, even the stranger within your camp, from woodchopper to waterdrawer—<sup>11</sup>to enter into the covenant of the ETERNAL your God, which the ETERNAL your God is concluding with you this day, with its sanctions; <sup>12</sup>to the end that God may establish you this day as God’s people and be your God, as the ETERNAL promised you and as the ETERNAL swore to your ancestors, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. <sup>13</sup>I make this covenant, with its sanctions, not with you alone, <sup>14</sup>but both with those who are standing here with us this day before the ETERNAL our God and with those who are not with us here this day.

<sup>11</sup>Surely, this Instruction which I enjoin upon you this day is not too baffling for you, nor is it beyond reach. <sup>12</sup>It is not in the heavens, that you should say, “Who among us can go up to the heavens and get it for us and impart it to us, that we may observe it?” <sup>13</sup>Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, “Who among us can cross to the other side of the sea and get it for us and impart it to us, that we may observe it?” <sup>14</sup>No, the thing is very close to you, in your mouth and in your heart, to observe it.

<sup>15</sup>See, I set before you this day life and prosperity, death and adversity. <sup>16</sup>For I command you this day, to love the ETERNAL your God, to walk in God’s ways, and to keep God’s commandments, God’s laws, and God’s rules, that you may thrive and increase, and that the ETERNAL your God may bless you in the land that you are about to enter and possess. <sup>17</sup>But if your heart turns away and you give no heed, and are lured into the worship and service of other gods, <sup>18</sup>I declare to you this day that you shall certainly perish; you shall not long endure on the soil that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess. <sup>19</sup>I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day: I have put before you life and death, blessing and curse. Choose life—if you and your offspring would live—<sup>20</sup>by loving the ETERNAL your God, heeding God’s commands, and holding fast to God. For thereby you shall have life and shall long endure upon the soil that the ETERNAL swore to your ancestors, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give to them.

Yizkor Service

Yizkor Service

We have come for Yizkor, to remember: To recall, as individuals, those whose lives were intertwined with ours in a personal bond, and to remember as a community those whose lives were ended because they were Jews. We, as individuals and as Jews, neither live nor die in isolation. We are part of a Jewish community; we are members of the Jewish people. Before we mourn our personal losses, we turn to the encompassing losses suffered by our people.

Every age has its martyrs: teachers, students, simple men and women whose faith gives strength to the weak and hope to the despairing. They live in us and in all the generations to come. They form a golden chain in history.

The destruction of six million of our people is not only a human tragedy, it is also a divine tragedy. The faith we had in humanity, the trust we had for the future, our confidence in culture and civilization – all these were also destroyed during the Shoah.

They lie in nameless graves in far off forests and abandoned fields; their ashes comingled at Auschwitz and Buchenwald, Bergen-Belsen and Babi-Yar, at Treblinka and Terezin. Yet they must not be forgotten. We shall remember them in their pain and their agony. We shall remember them as our own.

We remember them because the world would like to forget them. To forget how they cried for help and the nations overlooked them; how they tried to escape and the nations excluded them; how they died in the camps and the nations ignored them. And not just the victims of the Shoah. In every generation, Jews have died al Kiddush HaShem, for the sanctification of your Holy Name, just because they were Jews. Just because they believed in You.

* * *

What can we say? What can we do? How bear the unbearable, or accept what life has brought to our people? All who are born must die, but how shall we compare the slow passage of our days with the callous slaughter of the innocent, cut off before their time? They lived with faith, not all, but many, and surely many died with faith: faith in God, in life, in the goodness that even flames cannot destroy. May we find a way to the strength of that faith, that sure sense that life and soul endure beyond this body's death.

They have left their lives to us. Let a million prayers rise whenever Jews worship; let a million candles glow against the darkness of these unfinished lives.

We pray, O Source of Life, that Your Torah to which these, Your children, have borne witness in life and in death, sheds a renewed light in the hearts of all people, that all of them – nameless to us but known to You – shall not have suffered in vain.

אָנִי מַאֲמִין בְּאַמוּנָה שְׁלֵמָה בְּבִיאת הַמָּשִׁיחַ.
וְאֵף עַל פִּי שְׂחִתְמָהִמָּה עִם כָּל זֶה אָנִי מַאֲמִין,
עִם כָּל זֶה אֲחַכֶּה לוֹ בְּכָל יוֹם שְׂיָבוֹא אָנִי מַאֲמִין.

A-ni ma'a-min b'e-mu-na sh'lei-ma b'vi-at ha-ma-shi-ach.
V'af al pi sheh-yit-ma-mei-ah im kol zeh a-ni ma'a-min;
im kol zeh a-cha-keh lo be-chol yom sheh-ya-vo ani ma'a-min.

I believe with perfect faith in the coming of a better world. And even if the Messianic Age be delayed, still I believe. Through all of this, I will wait for it; every day I believe it will come.

* * *

We mourn for the suffering and the loss of our people even as we now turn our thoughts to those members of our own family and our congregational family whose loss is our loss.

O God, this hour revives in us memories of loved ones who are no more. What happiness we shared when they walked among us! What joy when, loving and loved, we lived our lives together!

Their memory is a blessing forever.

Months or years may have passed, yet we feel near to them. Our hearts yearn for them. Though the bitter grief has softened, duller pain abides, for the place where once they stood is empty now, forever. The links of life are broken. But the links of love and longing remain forever.

Their souls are bound up with ours forever.

We see them now with the eye of memory: their faults forgiven, their virtues grown larger. So does goodness live, and weakness fade from sight. We remember them with gratitude and bless their names.

Their memory is a blessing forever.

As we reflect upon those whose memory moves us this day, we seek consolation; we pray for the strength and the insight born of faith.

* * *

The eye is never satisfied with seeing; endless are the desires of the heart. We devise new schemes on the graves of a thousand disappointed hopes. Like Moses on Mount Nebo, we behold the Promised Land from afar but may not enter it. Our life, at its best, is an endless effort for a goal we never attain. Death finally terminates the struggle, and joy and grief, success and failure, all are ended. Like children falling asleep over their toys, we relinquish our grasp on earthly possessions only when death overtakes us. Master and servant, rich and poor, strong and feeble, wise and simple, all are equal in death. The grave levels all distinctions, and makes the whole world kin.

* * *

Adonai, what are we human beings that You should know about us, we children of the flesh that You should take account of us? A person is like vapor, our days as quickly passing as a shadow. In the morning we flourish and grow tall; in the evening we are cut down, dried up. You turn us to contrition saying, "Do teshuvah, children of the flesh!" Would that we were wise, and understood what will happen to us in the end, for when we die we take nothing away. Our glory will not descend along with us.

Elohai N'shamah

by Casey Prusher

Elohai, n'shamah
Shenatata bi, shenatata bi

Elohai, n'shamah
Shenatata bi, shenatata bi

T'horah hi, t'horah hi, t'horah hi

You created me, You shaped me,
You breathed me into life.

You created me, You shaped me,
You breathed me into life.

If I was one of those cut off too soon, after my death say this about me:

*There are people who die before their time,
leaving their poetry,
their song of life, unfinished.
What a shame!
There was another song to sing,
and now it's gone, gone forever!*

They had a harp -
A soul expressive and alive, and the poet within them used all its strings to tell private thoughts, yet kept one secret hidden.
Round and round their fingers played, but one string was mute to the end, silent to the very end.

*So the pain is very, very great!
There are people who die before their time
leaving a song unfinished.
There was another song to sing,
and now it's gone, gone forever!*

* * *

To the living, death is a wound. Its name is grief.
Its companion is loneliness.
Whenever it comes - whatever its guise,
even when there are no tears - death is a wound.

But death belongs to life - as night belongs to day as darkness belongs to light as shadows belong to substance as the fallen leaf to the tree death belongs to life.

It is not our purpose to live forever.
It is only our purpose to live.

*It is no great mitzvah that one lives long.
It is a mitzvah only that a person's life was good.*

The light of life is a finite flame. Like the Yahrtzeit candle, life is kindled and it glows. But soon it fades; its substance is consumed, and it is no more.

In light we see; in light we are seen. The flame dances and our lives are full. But as night follows day, the candle of our life burns down and sputters. There is an end to the flame. We see no more, and are no more seen.

Yet we should not despair, for we are more than a memory slowly fading into the darkness. With our lives, we give life.

Something of us can never die; we move in the eternal cycle of darkness and death, of light and life.

Psalm 23

מִזְמוֹר לְדָוִד יְהוָה רֹעִי לֹא אֶחְסָר. בְּנֵאוֹת דֶּשֶׁא יִרְבִּיצֵנִי עַל־מֵי מְנוּחֹת
יְנַהֲלֵנִי. נַפְשִׁי יִשׁוּבֵב יִנְחֵנִי בְּמַעְגְלֵי־צֶדֶק לְמַעַן שְׁמוֹ. גַּם כִּי־אֵלֶף בָּגִיא
צִלְמֹות לֹא־אִירָא רָע כִּי־אַתָּה עִמָּדִי שְׁבִטָּךְ וּמִשְׁעֶנְתְּךָ הִמָּה יְנַחֲמֵנִי.
תַּעֲרֹךְ לִפְנֵי שְׁלֹחַן נֶגֶד צִרְרֵי דִשְׁנָתְךָ בְּשֶׁמֶן רֹאשִׁי כוֹסֵי רוּיָהּ. אֵף טוֹב וְחֹסֶד יִרְדְּפוּנִי כָל־יְמֵי חַיִּי וְשִׁבְתִּי בְּבֵית־יְהוָה לְאָרְךָ יָמִים.

*Adonai is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
You make me lie down in green pastures;
You lead me beside the still waters;
You restore my soul.
You lead me in straight paths for Your name's sake.
Yea, though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death,
I fear no evil, for You are with me.
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.
You set a table before me in the presence of my enemies.
You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life.
And I shall dwell in the house of the Eternal forever.*

Forget Me Not

by Stacy Citron

I remember when tickle fights
And morning cartoons
Were my favorite way
Spending every moment with you
But we're older now,
After all we've been through
I still think the best part of me is you

I remember when you first
Found out the news,
Too protective to show me
That it got to you
Your sentences are left unfinished
Your mind is going but
Your heart's still in this

I remember you told me
All this would change,
I had to put on a brave face,
I had to look away
I know there's so much unknown,
But I hope this stays
With you when you go

I'll remember the way you live
Fearlessly
Now I'm just like you,
Our souls have symmetry
I will treasure being your prize
I will love you for all of my life

Chorus:

Forget me not,
Got your hands around my heart
You ain't gotta be scared,
Baby I will always be there
Imma always come through

I, I won't forget
You, I won't forget
If this is my final salute,
I won't forget you.

Promise me, Forget me not
Got your hands around my heart
Love you to the moon and Kinda dumb but you're my best friend
If this is my final salute,
I won't forget you

In Memory of a Spouse

It was better when you were here, better when we could share. Now I walk our familiar ways expecting to see you; forgetful of what is. I cannot but sigh when I remember. There remains a place in me emptied by your loss, only partly filled by your memory. It is better to share, harder to be alone. Part of you will stay with me, hand and hand, still sharing, still caring, always.

In Memory of a Loved One or Friend

The days when we were together in happy companionship seem as yesterday. Yet my life continues to unfold while yours does not. Your loving friendship was my delight and support. It can never be replaced. Your warmth and your compassion abide with me still. I know by the way I live my life that part of you is in me, and will be always.

O God full of compassion, Eternal Spirit of the universe, grant perfect rest under the wings of Your Shechinah to our loved ones who have entered eternity. Master of Mercy, wrap them in Your holy presence, and may their souls be bound up in the bond of eternal life. The Eternal God is their inheritance. May they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

It is a fearful thing to love what death can touch.

A fearful thing to love and then to lose.

A thing for fools, this.

Yet, kadosh, a holy thing, a holy thing to love.

For your life has lived in me. Your laugh once lifted me. Your word was gift to me. To remember this brings painful joy.

‘Tis a human thing, love; a holy thing to say Kaddish, to love what death has touched.

Service for Yom Kippur Afternoon

אך בַּעֲשׂוֹר לַחֹדֶשׁ הַשְּׁבִיעִי הַזֶּה יוֹם הַכִּפּוּרִים הוּא מִקְרָא-קֹדֶשׁ יְהִיָּה לָכֶם
וְעֲנִיתֶם אֶת-נַפְשֹׁתֵיכֶם וְהִקְרַבְתֶּם אֵלֶיךָ לַיהוָה.

“The tenth day of the seventh month will be for you a day of repentance; a holy assembly.
You shall afflict your souls and draw near to your God.” (Lev. 23:27)

On this Day of Atonement, we pray: sustain us and strengthen us.

Keep us mindful of the meaning of the prayers we utter; make us sensitive to the purposes of the fast we have begun.

Keep us hungry for Torah, and give us the will to study it.

Keep us hungry for justice, and give us courage to pursue it.

Keep us hungry for peace, and give us the strength to work for it.

Keep us hungry for righteousness, and give us the determination to live for it.

Keep us hungry for love, and give us understanding to earn it.

Keep us hungry for reconciliation, and give us the wisdom to obtain it.

Keep us hungry for Your forgiveness, and give us the humility to ask for it.

On this Yom Kippur, O God, may our hunger provide us with food for our souls.

We are hungry for food today because we have chosen to fast. Yet we hunger for other things throughout the year. We hunger for love and affection. We hunger for other people to need us. We hunger to know that we are important to others. We hunger for dignity and self-respect. We hunger for a sense of purpose. We hunger to see good things in the world: courage, faith, kindness and love. Sustainer of Israel, help us to satisfy our hungers physically and spiritually, enable us to nourish others by giving of ourselves.

Be with us, O God of Israel, as we gather here in prayer on this Day of Atonement. Help us to be at one with You and with our neighbors. Help us, above all, to be at one with ourselves so that these precious days are not lost to pretense and self-deception.

Give us the strength to speak out honestly in prayer, and to know ourselves as we are: human beings sinned against and sinning. Keep us from blaming others or blaming You. Help us, instead, to accept the responsibilities of our lives so that we may grow in spirituality and goodness according to Your will.

אֲדֹנָי שְׁפָתַי תִּפְתָּח וּפִי יַגִּיד תְּהִלָּתְךָ:

Adonai is forever mighty;
Restoring life to those marked out for death;
Liberating peoples once destined for defeat;
Banishing despair through the loving acts of human beings;
Reviving barren hopes within the womb of weary dreamers;
Cutting loose the fetters of the victims fallen underneath the sickness of our days;
Remembering those obscured by the dust of time.

May You extend Your power to us;
Restoring us;
Banishing our despair;
That from the dust of our uncaring age
we bring to bloom those loving acts that make us human.

Blessed are You, Eternal One, Who renews all life.

* * *

God's gift to us is the power and the freedom to choose. Humans are not angels nor are we robots. We are forever faced with choices of good and evil, blessings and curses. The struggle is ceaseless; the choice is ours.

We have been created with minds able to think good thoughts and hearts capable of good intentions. Often we fail to fulfill this capacity, to live up to the promise of God's pure gift.

We have been created with eyes, the blessing of sight, to see the world's beauty and the holiness of all its creatures.

Often we squander God's gift and look without seeing. Often we contaminate it, and let our eyes lead us astray.

We have been created with ears to hear sacred words, to hear sounds of wisdom, beauty and love.

Often we squander God's gift, and hear without listening. Often we debase it, by listening to gossip, obscenities and words of hatred.

We have been created with mouths and tongues, with the gift of speech that God gave to no other creature. With words we try to pray. With words we speak, with love, to God and human beings.

But malice, pettiness, falsehood and slander have sullied our speech. With words we have mocked God's gift, shaming neighbor and stranger, cursing, laughing at the pain of others, uttering false oaths, insincere pledges and vain promises.

We have been created with hands, the ability to sense creation through touch, the capacity to transmit tenderness.

Sometimes we have veered toward violence, using our hands to injure or destroy.

We have been given legs to walk in God's path, to pursue God's commandments.

Instead of walking always in the ways of Godliness, often we have rushed to do unworthy deeds. We have walked away from Torah and from people.

We have been blessed with life and with the ability to share and transmit joy.

Infidelity and disloyalty have sometimes corrupted this pure gift.

All that we are, body and soul, are bared before God and before our own examination. We are burdened by the bad choices we have made. We have marred the pure beauty of our souls through our misdeeds.

May we find the courage to renew our lives, to change at least part of what should be changed. May Yom Kippur lead us to reconciliation with ourselves, with those whom we have hurt and offended and, by doing so, lead us to reconciliation with God.

* * *

Let us ask ourselves hard questions for this is the time for truth.

How much time did we waste in the year that is now gone?

Did we fill our days with blessing or were they dull and empty?

Was there love inside our home or was the affectionate word left unsaid?

Was there real companionship or were we living together and growing apart?

Were we a help to our loved ones or did we take them for granted?

The kind deed: did we perform it or postpone it? The unnecessary gibe: did we say it or hold it back?

Did we live by false values? Did we deceive others? Did we deceive ourselves?

Did we acquire only possessions or did we acquire new insights, as well?

Did we fear what the crowd would say and kept quiet when we should have spoken out?

Did we mind only our own business or did we feel the heartbreak of others?

Did we live right, and if not, what have we learned and will we change?

* * *

Al chet she-cha-ta-nu l'fa-ne-cha...

עַל יְחַטָּא שְׁחַטְאֵנוּ לְפָנֶיךָ...

For all these sins, we ask God and each other, to give us the strength to forgive ourselves and one another:

For pretending to have emotions we do not feel;

For using the sins of others to excuse our own;

For giving up our dreams;

For closing our eyes to reality;

For false pride;

For no pride;

For self-contempt;

For over-inflated egos;

For withholding the helping hand.

For making martyrs of ourselves;

For demanding instant gratification;

For expecting constant gratification;

For expecting too much;

For settling for too little;

For cooperating with self-destructive behavior in others or in ourselves;

For not supporting each other as we attempt to change;

For trying to possess and control those we love;

For withholding love and support;

For doubting our ability to love or to receive love from others;

For fearing commitment with another.

וְעַל כָּלֵם, אֱלֹהֵי סְלִיחוֹת, סְלַח לָנוּ, מְחַל לָנוּ, כִּפֹּר-לָנוּ.

V'al ku-lam, E-lo-ha s'li-chot, s'lach la-nu, me-chal la-nu, ka-per la-nu.

For all these sins, O God of compassion, forgive us, pardon us, restore us.

* * *

We examine not only our personal lives but also our responsibilities as part of our community, our people, and our nation. We seek forgiveness....

For the sins of ignoring the dangers facing our Jewish brothers and sisters in foreign lands;

And for the sins we have committed by not publicly supporting the Jewish people and Israel when they are being treated or criticized unfairly.

For the sins of being critical of Jewish life from a distance rather than from personal involvement and commitment;

And for the sins of not spending more time engaged in learning Jewish tradition and studying Jewish history, literature and holy texts.

For the sins of not giving enough time to building the kind of Jewish community we desire, but instead expecting things to happen without contributing to make them happen.

* * *

We sin against You when we sin against ourselves. For our failures of justice, O God, we ask forgiveness for us and all humanity:

For worshipping money.

For ignoring the problems in our society.

For not acknowledging the human rights of others.

For not addressing injustice.

For turning away from the plight of the hungry.

For turning away from the victims of oppression.

For tolerating racism.

For tolerating discrimination of any group.

For dismissing the disenfranchised.

וְעַל כָּלֵם, אֱלֹהֵי סְלִיחוֹת, סְלַח לָנוּ, מְחַל לָנוּ, כַּפֵּר-לָנוּ.

V'al ku-lam, E-lo-ha s'li-chot, s'lach la-nu, me-chal la-nu, ka-per la-nu.

For all these sins, O God of compassion, forgive us, pardon us, restore us.

* * *

*For the sin which we have committed by dividing our cities into slums and gated communities;
For the sin of threatening the survival of species on this planet;
For the sin of filling the common air with poisons;
For the sin of making our waters unfit to drink and unsafe for marine life;
For the sin of pouring noxious chemicals upon trees and soil;
For the sin we have committed by appeasing aggressors;
For the sin which we have committed before You by not working for peace.*

וְעַל כָּלֵם, אֱלֹהֵי סְלִיחוֹת, סְלַח לָנוּ, מְחַל לָנוּ, כַּפֵּר-לָנוּ.

V'al ku-lam, E-lo-ha s'li-chot, s'lach la-nu, me-chal la-nu, ka-per la-nu.

For all these sins, O God of compassion, forgive us, pardon us, restore us.

* * *

We thank You, O Mentor of Israel, for our family and for what we mean and bring to one another. We are grateful for the bonds of loyalty and affection which sustain us, and which keep us close to one another no matter how far apart we may be. We thank You for implanting within us a deep need for each other, for giving us the capacity to love and to care, and for enabling us to share our simchas and our tzuris together.

Help us to be modest in our demands of one another, but generous in our giving to each other. May we never measure how much love or encouragement we offer; may we never count the times we forgive. Rather, may we always be grateful that we have one another and that we are able to express our love in acts of kindness.

Keep us gentle in our speech. When we offer words of criticism, may they be chosen with care and spoken softly. May we waste no opportunity to speak words of sympathy, of appreciation and of praise.

Bless our families with health, happiness and contentment. Above all, grant us the wisdom to build a joyous and peaceful home in which the spirit of Jewish tradition, and pride in the heritage of Israel, will always abide. O Source of peace, bless the whole family of Israel with peace.

Neilah: The Closing of the Gates

The dusk draws closer. The close of the day is symbolic of the close of life. In all the calendar of Judaism, there is no moment more poignant than this one. All through the day, the flood of prayer has ebbed and flowed. Now, as the sun sinks low, as the shadows of the night draw near, we feel a new pitch of intensity.

We live only once. Do we not want to live fully? The corridor of life stretches before us. Each of us must walk down its stately length. The gates do not stand open forever. As we walk down the corridor, they shut behind us, one by one. At the end they are all closed.

This is the meaning of Neilah, the Closing of the Gates. Before it is too late, let us enter the gates that lead to Torah and mitzvot. Let us enter the gates to those things in life which abide eternally.... Before the gates swing shut. Before the doors are closed.

* * *

Everlasting God, we turn now to You once more on this High Holy Day to cry out our longing and the longing of all men and women for a beginning of that wholeness we call peace. Ever and again, we now admit, we have turned our backs on You, and on our sisters and brothers: forsaking Your Torah, denying Your truth, ignoring Your will, defacing Your beauty. The intelligence You have implanted within us we have applied to the arts of war; with the skill we have from You we make engines of terror and pain.

We have prayed for peace, even as we laughed at truth; for blessing, but did not care to do Your will; for mercy, and have shown none to others. We have prayed for impossible things: peace without justice, forgiveness without restitution, love without sacrifice.

But You, our Maker, abound in grace: so now again we turn to You, to attach ourselves to Your purpose, to set ourselves on the paths that lead to the coming of peace and right, freedom and joy for Israel and all the world.

Again, as the shadows fall, we ask forgiveness, and again, we praise You, O God, Source of peace.

* * *

O Mentor of Israel, be with this congregation and with all our members, their families and their households; prosper them in their various callings and occupations, help them in their needs, and guide them in their difficulties.

Hear the prayers of all who worship here, comfort the sorrowing and cheer the silent sufferers.

Bless those who guide and who serve this congregation, and those who so often contribute to its strength.

Reward with the joy of goodness the charitable and the merciful who aid the poor, care for the sick, teach the ignorant, and extend a helping hand to those who have lost their way in the world.

We pray for the ability to recognize what is good, and for the will to promote it. We seek the joy of attaining lives that are good in Your sight.

Help us to bridge the gap between our conscience and our conduct, between what we believe and what we do.

* * *

We Jews are linked by a covenant we are not free to break. We are part of a covenant people whose ancestors heard God's voice, whose prophets beheld the Almighty in visions.

We have been compared to a lamb, torn by wolves, and to a lion, unafraid to walk alone among the peoples. We Jews are linked by a covenant we are not free to break.

Let not egotism, personal or national, seal our ears to the cry for compassion - tzedakah, or the voice of commandment - mitzvah. Therefore, let us commit our hearts and souls and might to accept in love the covenant of Sinai, to do that which is expected of us, to live day and night the covenant between God and Israel.

* * *

Avinu Malkeinu, we pray for life. Bless us, once more, with a year of life so that we may be privileged to complete the year we have just begun. Despite the burdens and the heartbreaks, the pains and perils, we want to live; we ask to be sealed in the Book of Life.

But even as we pray that years may be added to our lives, we ask, that true life may be added to our years.

May the New Year be for us a time for enhancing the quality of our lives, enriching their content, deepening their meaning.

Help us to keep our minds alive. May we be open to new ideas, entertain challenging doubts, reexamine long-held opinions, nurture a lively curiosity, and strive to add to our knowledge.

Help us to keep our hearts alive. May we develop greater compassion, be receptive to new friendships and grow more sensitive to those who surround us.

Help us to keep our souls alive. May we be more responsive to the needs of others, less vulnerable to consuming greed, more attentive to the craving for fellowship, and more devoted to truth.

Help us to keep our spirits alive. May we face the future with confidence, knowing that every age has its unique joys and satisfactions, each period in our lives a glory of its own.

Help us keep our faith alive. May we be sustained by the knowledge that You have planted within us eternal life and have given us the power to live beyond our years.

Whether our years be few or many, help us to link our lives to the life of our people and to our eternal faith.

אָבִינוּ מַלְכֵנוּ, חַנּוּנֵנוּ וְעֵנּוּ, כִּי אֵין בָּנוּ מַעֲשִׂים,
עֲשֵׂה עִמָּנוּ צְדָקָה וְחֶסֶד וְהוֹשִׁיעֵנוּ.

A-vi-nu Mal-kei-nu, cha-nei-nu va'a-nei-nu, ki ein ba-nu ma'a-sim.
A-sei i-ma-nu tz'da-ka v'che-sed v'ho-shi-ei-nu.

Avinu Malkeinu, have compassion on us, for we are not perfect. Deal with us in both justice and mercy so we may be renewed.

Day softly tiptoes out through the western horizon.

Soon night will encompass our hearts.

Can we hear the chorus of the hosts on high?

*Not words, but God's soft spoken plea is heard:
"Keep open your gate! Keep open your gate!
Close not your last remaining hope."*

O Guardian of Israel, who performed wonders for our ancestors and led them out of ignorance and darkness into knowledge and light, perform a wonder in us too. Lead us step by step into goodness, holiness, peace and togetherness in the year to come.

Whether by birth or by choice, we are the heirs of a covenant, a partnership entered into at Mount Sinai thirty-two centuries ago. There we learned:

There is a God Who can and will help us. There is a guidebook that can and will lead us. There is a holy community that can and will spiritually elevate us.

If we want to live more, we must love more. If we want to have more direction and purpose in our lives, we must study more Torah.

If we want to live healthier and holier lives, we must do more mitzvot.

If we want to live in a more compassionate world, we must give more tzedakah and multiply our deeds of kindness. Today is the day to begin anew. With God's help, we open the doors to go forth into a New Year of life.

For twenty-five hours we have prayed out our hearts and minds on this Yom Kippur. As evening comes and the long fast draws to a close, tens of thousands of words have been spoken and sung. And yet, there are further unspoken feelings buried within us. So, we muster our remaining physical and spiritual resources and make one last desperate effort to descend into the human depths and to climb to the divine heights.

We cry out “Shema Yisrael.” We repeat “Baruch Shem Kavod” three times. We stammer, seven times, each time at a higher and more urgent pitch: “Adonai Hu haElohim: Adonai is God.” No longer is it the meaning of the words but rather their rhythm, their insistent repetition, in which we place our hope. And, finally, we abandon the human voice and verbal expression altogether. We reach for the shofar and through its one long, piercing cry: Tekiah Gedolah, our hearts’ desires reach the heavens.

וַאֲנַחְנוּ כּוֹרְעִים וּמִשְׁתַּחֲוִים וּמוֹדִים, לְפָנֵי מֶלֶךְ, מַלְכֵי הַמַּלְכִּים, הַקָּדוֹשׁ
בָּרוּךְ הוּא.

Va-a-nach-nu kor-im u-mish-ta-cha-vim u-mo-dim lif-nei Me-lech,
Mal-chei ha-m'la-chim, Ha-Ka-dosh Ba-ruch Hu.

שְׁמַע יִשְׂרָאֵל: יְהוָה אֱלֹהֵינוּ, יְהוָה אֶחָד!

Sh'ma Yisraeil: Adonai E-lo-hei-nu, Adonai e-chad!

Hear, O Israel: the Eternal One is our God, the Eternal God alone!

בָּרוּךְ שֵׁם כְּבוֹד מַלְכוּתוֹ לְעוֹלָם וָעֶד!

Ba-ruch shem k'-vod mal-chu-to l'o-lam va-ed!

Praised be God's Sovereignty through all time.

יְיָ הוּא הָאֱלֹהִים

Adonai Hu ha-E-lo-him.

Adonai is God.

תְּקִיעַה גְּדוֹלָה

Tekiah Gedolah.
